

School of Youth Development Catalog of Learning

In-Service Learning Modules focus on the basic skills and knowledge front-line staff and volunteers need to create an optimal Club Experience for young people. These modules can be facilitated by Learning Coaches.

All modules are available as in-person trainings. Descriptions and length of each course can be found below:

Training Title	Description	Length
Facilitating Closing and Transitions	The purpose of this session is to learn how to effectively facilitate closings and transitions at the end of a high-quality program session.	1 hour
Facilitating Community Builders	The purpose of this session is to learn how to facilitate effective community builders as a component of a high-quality Club experience. The goal of this session is to learn the key elements of an effective community builder and practice them.	1 hour
Facilitating Engaging Discussions	The purpose of this session is to learn how to facilitate engaging discussions with youth as a component of a high-quality Club experience.	1 hour
Soliciting Youth Feedback	The purpose of this session is to learn how to solicit and implement youth feedback.	1 hour
Creating Opportunities for Choice	The purpose of this session is to learn how to create opportunities for choice for youth in the Club.	1 hour
Scaffolding Activities	The purpose of this session is to learn how to scaffold content for Club members to effectively build knowledge and skills.
Creating Collaboratives in Boys & Girls Clubs	The focus of this leaning module is on creating Collaboratives with Club staff and members. *This learning module is designed for Learning Coaches to facilitate as an in-service training for frontline staff and volunteers after completing the Emotional Intelligence at Boys & Girls Clubs distance learning course.	3.5 hours
Orientation to the Boys & Girls Club Movement	Provides participants with an orientation to the Boys & Girls Club Movement.	2 hours
Orientation to the Outcome-Driven Club Experience	Provides participants with an overview of the Outcome-Driven Club Experience, the center of our Movement's research-based theory of change – the Formula for Impact.	2 hours

Strengthening Character in Boys & Girls Clubs	Provides participants with an overview of how to improve the character of Club members by using positive reinforcement, guidance and disciplinary strategies.	4 hours
YD Challenges	Provides participants an opportunity to complete the eight YD Challenges. The eight YD Challenges are designed to help participants create a high-quality Club Experience. Each challenge covers one of the following topics: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Building Community2. Positive Discipline3. Supervision4. Structure & Clear Limits5. Redirection6. Inclusion7. Youth Voice & Ownership8. YD Checklist	3.5 hours