Phase 3: On-Site Learning - All students have the opportunity to return in person to school settings what are appropriately modified and cleaned to accommodate health and safety requirements issued by the Shawnee County Health Department.

Phase 2: Hybrid Learning - A modified student schedule will be created to provide students with a combination of on-site, in-person learning at school and off-site remote learning. Students will be divided into 2 groups. Group A meets at school on Mondays and Tuesdays with remote learning Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. Group B meets at school on Thursdays and Fridays, with remote learning Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

Phase 1: Remote Learning - Schools are closed to students by the State or Shawnee County Health Department, or, families choose Phase 1 instead of Phase 3 or 2 to limit exposure to others in a school setting.
